LINCOLN REPUBLICANS ARE "STAND PATTERS"

PAYNE-ALDRICH TARIFF ENDORSED BY COUNTY CONVENTION HERE SATURDAY.

Lincoln county republicans went on record as being "stand-patters" at the county mass convention held here Saturday afternoon at which delegates were appointed to the district convention to be held in Danville today at which a candidate for congress will be nominated. The Payne-Aldrich tariff law which even many of the best republicans of the nation pronounce a rank injustice to the people, was endorsed in the resolutions adopted, although they were conspicuously silent on the Aldrich-Cannon oligarchy.

The resolutions proposed United States Senator Bradley for Vice-President, and also endorsed the administration of Governor Willson and President Taft.

Nineteen good republicans were named as delegates from Lincoln to the District Convention at Danville. They go unopposed. So far the name of no particular man has been suggested as a suitable candidate to oppose Hon. Harvey Helm. The delegates from Lincoln are: Messrs. John Edmiston, K. D. Noaks, Jesse Price, John A. Blain, J. C. Napier, Thomas Ferrill, Fred Carson, A. G. Falconer, Baker Hubble, R. L. Davison, A. B. Florence, G. W. Gentry, W. D. Tardiff, Harrison Graham, Anderson Carr, R. C. Arnold, A. C. Carman, and Ora Gooch.

Later, it is said to have been agreed among the leaders that Hon. C. M. Hanna, of Shelby county, will receive the congressional nomination.

SPECIAL TERM OF COURT DID MUCH GOOD WORK.

At the recent special term of the Lincoln circuit court when criminal cases only were tried, out of a docket composed of 133 cases, the court cleared up 105, which is considered a splendid record.

After peremptory instructions had been given in favor of J. M. McCarty in two cases for permitting miners to play pool, the other 17 indictments against him on these grounds were dismissed.

It is said that James Hughes who was sentenced to serve five years on the charge of detaining a woman, will appeal his case to the court of appeals, his attorney and friends feeling that the higher court will make a different view of the facts that did the lower jury.

Three Railroaders

HAVE CLOSE CALL IN KING'S MOUNTAIN TUNNEL

Caught in the middle of King's Mountain tunnel, on account of a derailed car, three men nearly lost their lives last week by suffocation. They were held in the tunnel for an hour and forty minutes, and when they finally got out they were completely exhausted from the effects of the smoke, heat and gases. They were Conductor James W. Davis, Engineer Ooten and sectionman George Smith. Midway in the tunnel, which is more than a mile long, a car was derailed on account of the breaking of a rail. The combined efforts of the train crew and Mr. Smith who was near at hand was necessary to replace the car and repair the track before the train could be moved.

The work on the inside with the small crew was quite difficult, and before the train was ready to move on, the entire crew was practically disabled.

AN EXPERT'S OPINION OF SKIN DISEASES

A prominent national expert on skin diseases whose name you are familiar with says that in all his scientific experience he has never found so hard a disease to conquer as Eczema. Yet he does not hesitate to recommend Zemo as a most successful remedy for the treatment of Eczema, itching skin diseases, dandruff, pimples, blackheads and all other diseases of the skin and scalp. He says that not only do its curative qualities make it popular but also the fact that it is a clean liquid remedy for external use. A great improvement over the old style greasy salves and lotions which are not only unpleasant to use but do not destroy the germ life that destroys the disease. Zemo draws the germs to the surface and destroys them, leaving the skin clear and healthy. Can be used freely on infants. Mr. C. L. Penny will gladly supply those who call with a free sample bottle of Zemo and a booklet which explains in simple language all about skin diseases and how to cure yourself at home with Zemo.

Republican leaders of prominence outside the "Bloody Eleventh" are getting into the fight to attempt to beat Caleb Powers for the nomination for Congress. Listen to Sam Roberts, collector of Internal Revenue, in his Lexington Leader:

Taking as a text that Caleb Powers says he is a member of the church and is, therefore a moral man, the London Echo lights into him and charges him with the fracture of nearly every moral law is the category, as well as a large number of the statute books. In fact it makes charges that if a democratic paper would make, there would be a howl among the republican papers, all over the country. Not only is he charged with inciting to riot and bloodshed at Frankfort but fleeing in disguise with a pardon in his pocket, when his sins could no longer be condoned. The arraignment is terrific, and if the half of it be true, the sentence of death, from which a democratic Court of Appeals rescued him, ought, in all justice, to have been inflicted.

Mr. Powers ought not have exposed himself to the revivification of such charges from his former friends. It would have been a great deal better for him to have retired to obscurity, and been forgotten, than to have let his ambition overleap itself to warm a seat in congress. The goal, if he wins, is not worth it. Besides, what could he be, more than a notch on a stick, with his only claim to recognition, that he was charged, and three times found guilty of conspiracy to assassinate a man who was legally proceeding to secure his rights, and that he accepted a pardon from a partisan Governor, when he could have shown his innocence, if he was.

The Hon. Robert B. Franklin was abused and vilified for producing sworn charges against Powers in court he was simply doing his bounden duty. But even backed by the testimony that he had, Mr. Franklin never made as serious charges against him as his former friends are now doing and proving that in pardoning him, Governor Willson committed an unpardonable crime.

The State Prison Commission made a splendid move when it re-appointed Col E. E. Mudd as Warden of the Frankfort penitentiary. He is the best warden a State prison in Kentucky has had for a half century. There was no politics in this appointment. Col. Mudd was given the place at first because he demonstrated that he could "make good." The wood-chuck dropped dead, however, when Mott Ayres was appointed employment agent under the new parole law, at $1,200 a year Mott was Sergeant-at-arms at the last senate. Everybody who has ever been at Frankfort knows Mott.

Rev Walter Vreeland, an earnest and conscientious Methodist divine, succeeds "our Joe" Severance as Chaplain at Frankfort. If political exigencies demanded the decapitation of such a splendid official as Dr. Severance there's no one we would rather see have it than "Brother" Walter.

Secretary of State Bruner has issued a condensed report of the condition of the 461 Kentucky State Banks and Trust Companies and of 149 National Banks at close of business June 30th, 1910. The total resources of State banks is given as $104,265,254.73; of National Banks, $113,711,218.01, making a total of $217,976,472.74.

The Thirteenth Census

LESLIE ANDERSON'S ARTICLE ON HOW IT IS MADE.

the present census was made, all the returns from such city must be passed upon in the bureau here and each family assigned to the proper wards where it lives. This requires much correspondence and each day hundreds of letters go out from the office asking for a variety of information. All these letters bear the signature of F. Dana Durand, as director of the census, although he scarcely ever sees a one of them.

The Geographer Division does also the work of searching the old census records of 1850 and 1860 to verify as to age the claims made upon the Pension office by persons who are applying for pension or an increase in their pension. This work is rather dry and uninteresting. Some times the proper name can be found within five minutes, but often it requires two days time and a search through fifty thousand names before the right one is found.

There are both day and night crews at the Census work. The day work is from 8 to 4:30 with thirty minutes for lunch. The night work is from 3:45 to 11:00 with fifteen minutes for lunch. Many of the employees seek the night shift as it gives them a splendid opportunity to see the city in the day time. Only four hours work is done on Saturday during July, Aug. and September. These half holidays are granted by executive order. The main census offices are at First and B. streets northwest in a low building rented by the government for the purpose. There is nothing here to see except work and waste paper and visitors are not admitted to the rooms.

The keynote of work here is not speed but accuracy. Nobody ever gets in a hurry but when a piece of work is finished it must be correct. If the slightest irregularity exists anywhere all the time necessary is taken to remove the doubt and make things straight. Things that would never be questioned by the average business concern are looked into with discernment until everything tallies exactly.

Kentucky has between 80 and 90 appointees in the bureau here now. Most of them are from the eastern section of the State. There are only fifteen women from Kentucky, her proportion in this respect being much smaller than the other States. I have met many of them, and that characteristic something which forces acquaintance of Kentuckian with Kentuckian when away from home is nowhere better exemplified than here. The regular appointees from Kentucky in the government service here have an organization known as the Kentucky Club. Mr. Bert Clothier of Somerset is secretary of the club.

Court Day Sales

MUCH TRADING AND SELLING REPORTED BY FARMERS.

There were about 400 cattle on the market here court day and trading was brisk as there was a good crowd in town. Most of the stuff sold from 3 to 5 cents.

Joe H. Jordan, the mule buyer was on hand and got 46 yearling mule colts at from $45 to $85.

One of the largest sales of young mules lately was that of Sidney Durbar, who sold 20 yearling mules to B. G. Fox, of Danville at $100 each.

Mr. Riffe, of the West End, has sold 70 cattle to Dick Gentry at $5.35 to be delivered in October.

Hiram Ray, of Garrard, bought 24 head of nice young cattle at the pens here at 4c.

J. T. Blankenship, of Pulaski, was on hand with a nice bunch that he sold from 3 1-2 to 4 1-2 cents.

Fields & Duncan the hustling young Somerset pike farmers and traders, sold a nice three-year-old mare to J. A. Carter for $200.

For Sale—Several fine Jersey cows and heifers registered and high grade and two registered bulls, a Shetland pony by Blue Eye. Pony buggy and harness. Lock Box 161 Stanford.

For Sale—354-acre farm, about 7 miles from Stanford; 100 acres of fine bottom land as good as you can find in Lincoln county. The upland is good. The whole farm is well fenced and never failing water, there being two good cisterns at the door; a 9-room dwelling, two tenant houses, two stock barns and new tobacco barn, 96x36; 2 corn cribs, granary, ice house, buggy house, etc. Will sell at a bargain in the next 60 days. Owner's reason for selling is bad health. For further particulars see W. L. McCarty or L. R. Hughes.

Lewis Coffey has sold his farm in Elk Spring Valley, Wayne county to Shearer Bros., for $50.00 per acre for all land under cultivation. Mr. Coffey thinks there will be about 230 acres.

The largest single shipment of export cattle which ever left Shelby county was made on a special train of twelve cars over the Louisville and Nashville. It carried 295 head, which averaged 1,416½ pounds. The cattle were purchased by J. W. Wells from W. J. and B. A. Thorpe, with the exception of eight head, and were consigned direct to Morrell & Co., of London England. The price was not made public, but it is known that they were bought at a considerable advance over the present market.

Mr. Rankin Clemens, of Fayette, county bought of Mr. Frank Curry his 464 acre farm on Salt River, paying $85 an acre. Mr. Curry bought the place two years ago for $65 an acre. This makes 2,100 acres of land that Mr. Curry owns in this county. It is said that on one occasion not long ago some one approached Mr. Clemens about buying some of his land and his answer was that he didn't know how to make a deed as he never made one in his life.—Harrodsburg Herald.

Mr. S. T. Harris the noted Lincoln county mule man, attended the Danville fair this week but is not showing any of his stock this year. Heretofore he has been making a pretty clean sweep of the blue ribbons. Next year he expects to be in the ring again. Mr. Harris is very popular in Danville and is not an infrequent visitor in the city.—Danville Advocate.

Two big sales will be held in Lincoln county early in September. W. H. Shanks will have a sale of all his cattle and other farm stock on Sept 6th and on Sept 7th J. H. Baughman will have a sale of his mules and other show stock. They claim these dates and will soon have out big bills giving full details and advertisements telling just what they have to offer.
